Wm. Coqay Dead

Wright county lost one of her pioneer citizens in the death at 8 o'clock Monday of Wm. Coqay at his home on Commercial street. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon in the Wynn cemetery near Hartville, the funeral services being conducted at that place by Rev. C. N. Findley.

Decedent was born in Indiana May 31, 1834, and lacked but a short time of being 86 years of age. When quite a small boy he came with his father's family to Wright county, and for many years he owned the farm his father homesteaded from the government, selling it a few years ago. He devoted his life to farming, moving to Mansfield upon his retirement from the farm.

He was twice married—to Anna Binkley in 1855, to which union five children were born, and to Sarah Rhoe in 1886, to which union were born eight children. His wife and six children—John Coqay, Mrs. Adeline Keeling, Edward Coqay, Mrs. Nancy A. Lahey, Eli Coqay and James Coqay—survive, also Mrs. Alta Royston, whom they reared as one of their own children, and a host of other relatives, including two half brothers, Jas. K. P. Coqay and G. W. Coqay.

He served three years in the Union Army during the civil war and for a number of years was quite active in G. A. R. circles.

The funeral was largely attended, those from out of town including: R. W. Keeling and wife of Augusta, Kans.; Mrs. Alta Royston and daughter Vivian of Wichita, Kans.; Ernest Coqay of Seymour.

Mrs. N. J. Sikes, who is the stepmother of William Coqay, Sr., and who is 87 years old today, was able to attend the funeral services Tuesday.

With the Bankers

Boston Red Sox Win Two Games From New York

Boston, April 19.—Boston took morning and afternoon Patriot's day games from New York, 6 to 0 and 8 to 3, respectively. Holt yielded only five hits in the morning, while Mogridge was hit hard in the third and sixth innings. In the afternoon Mays pitched his first game of the season and against his old mates, was not so good as Bush, who allowed but four hits until the ninth, when the Yanks got three singles and a run.
